

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

We the people own the airwaves. You are giving them away without asking for any public service in return. Stop the concentration of media, and force those who use our air waves to be good public citizens. That's your job, in case you forgot.
